'The Birth of Peace'
Phil. 4:7
"And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."
Today we think everything is alright if we have a roof over our heads, food to eat, money in the bank, and good health. But with all these things in life I wonder if we actually think about real peace.
The world for years has been calling for peace, and it has not come yet. I would like to tell you that "The Birth of Peace" was nearly two thousand years ago. It came with the Birth of Christ. The birth of Christ brought a peace that lives within your being regardless of how much or how little we have; we can still have the peace of Christ.
Jesus spoke in John 14:27 "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."
Jesus said he would give us peace not as the world but a peace and joy in the heart that will comfort in the time of trouble. Saturday will be another birthday for the "Prince of Peace."
"For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."
Wishing all a Merry Christmas.

E. W. Atkins, Jr., Pastor

Christmas Services At Promise Land Sunday

The pre - Christmas dinner sponsored by Long Mountain Lodge No. 204 of Masons last Sunday evening in its hall between hours of 1 and 5 p.m. was enjoyed by all who were present. Members of the newly organized Eastern Stars prepared and served the dinner. The holder of the lucky ticket was Miss Margaret Paige, of Concord.

Christmas services will be observed at the Promise Land Baptist Church this Sunday morning at 11 a.m. All officers, members and friends are asked to be present.

Impressive services were held at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday morning at 11 a.m. Christmas music was rendered by both choirs of the church. Several visitors and homecomers were present.
